German Review of Social Policy

Author Guidelines

Original manuscripts should be sent in electronic form to Dr. Charlotte Fechter (fechter@uni-landau.de). The contribution must not already have been published in this form, or accepted for publication. The texts will be examined in the peer review process.

First page

The first page of the manuscript should contain the following information: title of the work, name of the author, institutional affiliation, address and summaries of the contribution in German and English of about 100 words as well as the translation of the title of the work and the specification of the JEL classification code.

Scope

Submitted original articles should be written in English or German (following the new orthography), and should not exceed 45,000 characters (with spaces) (including graphs and tables).

Citation

Citations should follow the rules of American Citation: The body copy should include (in parentheses) the last name, the year of publication, and optionally the page number. Use a semicolon to separate different sources, and a forward-slash to separate co-authors. For more than two authors of a single work, use “et al.”. The last name(s) of the author(s) are to be written in italics, but institutions and “et al.” is not. Table or figure notes should also be marked in italics.

Example:

1. Text text text text (Schneider 2000)
2. Text text text text (Schneider 2000; Meier 2010)
3. Text text text (Schneider/Meier 2011)
4. Text text text (Schneider et al. 2011)
5. „Text text text.“ (Schneider/Meier 2011, pp. 15)
6. Name in body copy: Text text text Schneider (2000) text text text.
7. For institutions: Text text text (AWO 2013)

Images

The contribution should be not contain colour graphics and illustrations. Image files must be submitted separately as an Excel file, as vector graphics in EPS format, or as a bitmap with a resolution of 1,000 dpi. The numbering should be done with Arabic numerals. If the text contains only one graphic or illustration, the numbering is obsolete.

Numbering

The numbering should be done exclusively with Arabic numerals. Please note the point setting:

1. Heading
 - 1.1 Subheading
 - 1.1.1 Subheading
 - 1.1.2 Subheading
 - 1.2 Subheading
 - 1.2.1 Subheading
 - 1.2.2 Subheading

Bibliography:

The last name is to be written in italics and separated by a comma from the abbreviated first name. The first names are not written in italics. Institutions are not written in italics. The year is enclosed in parentheses and (where relevant) listed in ascending chronological order. Where there is more than one publication in the same year, an "a", "b", and so on is added. The colon is followed by the title, any subtitles are separated by a full stop, all other additions are separated by commas. When listing several works of a single author, repeat the name. Publishers are not written in italics, and the title follows after a comma. All entries finish with a full stop. Electronic citations require the same information and need additionally the location of the online source as well as an accurate access date.
